The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XXII. CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1868. NUMBER 11.

POLITICAL.

The Democratic National Ticket.

How Seymour's Renination Was Brought About.

Comments of the New York Press on the Work of the Convention.

Grant's Success Assured Beyond Contingency.

Mass Meetings In and About Tammany Hall.

Speeches of Seymour And State Universally Accepted in the Nomination.

Responses from the People.

Governor Morton's Key-Note of the Pending Campaign.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, July 10.

The intelligence was yesterday severe to stiffness from the apathy indicated that the result was obtained through the cowardice, trickery & the New York delegation, which all the time feared to nominate Seymour. It is, nevertheless, true that the enthusiasm of the New York delegation on the result of which subjected at the last hours to a sudden change, was not participated in by the delegates from other States. Seymour himself may have seemed to desire this nomination, but not the delegates from the States. Yallandigham and others were unwilling to sacrifice themselves for Seymour's benefit. Hendricks was the choice of the majority of New York to spring upon the convention, but the trick was exposed in the whole Ohio delegation, under the leadership of Gen. McLean, was brought to Seymour's support. Pendleton was the choice of the Ohio delegation, but he was overborne by Seymour's New York backers. J. GOODMAN & CO. & Chicago Tribune.

THE TRIBUNE.

The Tribune's leader is as follows:

SEYMOUR NOMINATED.

If the Democratic National Convention had been trusted on selecting their candidate for President with a view simply to win Republican votes, they could not so accurately have met their opposition, it could not have hit the mark more exactly. Nominate Seymour! Why, he is the very man who has been the most unscrupulous of those which triumphed in the Democratic party in the late campaign. Seymour is the man who, when the draft was ordered, and the people were called upon to support the call, refused to do it, and, on the contrary, denounced the draft as unconstitutional, and declared that he would not execute it. Seymour is the man who, when the draft was made, and the quota from the State of New York was assigned, refused to do anything to enforce it, and left the whole business to be done by the United States officers. Seymour is the man who, when the draft was made in Kansas on border-ruffianism, set up the claim that Kansas was not a State, and that the draft was therefore unconstitutional in Kansas. For the Democratic party to nominate Seymour, after the record he has made, is to declare that the draft was unconstitutional, that the war against Slavery was unconstitutional, that the war against Slavery was unconstitutional, that the war against Slavery

The Chronicle

SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1858

THE TWO PLATFORMS

We print to-day the platforms of the two parties, which are to be submitted to the people of this State for their ratification or rejection at the ballot-box on the second Tuesday of October next. The Democratic Convention, which assembled at Syracuse on the 21st inst., and which was composed of delegates fairly elected by the Democracy of the several counties, was called to order by Hon. Horatio Seymour, who presided over the deliberations of the body. The platform adopted by the Convention is a plain, straightforward statement of Democratic principles, and a clear and unequivocal condemnation of the corrupt and profligate course of the present State administration. It is not to be supposed that the Democracy of this State will be deceived by the hypocritical pretensions of the Republican party to reform. The people have had full opportunity to judge of the character of that party, and of the men who control it, and they will not be misled by any pretensions which the Republican leaders may now put forth. The platform adopted by the Democratic Convention is a platform of principles, and not of men. It is a declaration of the principles which the Democratic party will carry out if entrusted with power, and not a mere promise to do so. It is a pledge to the people that the Democratic party will not only denounce the corruptions of the present State administration, but that it will correct them. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the profligate waste of the public money, but that it will reform the system which has led to it. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present enormous taxation, but that it will reduce the taxes to the economical standard of former years. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present corrupt and unjust system of assessments, but that it will establish a system which will secure equality and justice to all. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present unjust and unequal system of canal tolls, but that it will establish a system which will relieve the commerce of the State from the present unjust burdens, and secure to the people the cheapest possible transportation for their products to the seaboard. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present corrupt and unjust system of legislation, but that it will establish a system which will secure honesty, economy, and purity in the administration of the State government. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present corrupt and unjust system of legislation, but that it will establish a system which will secure honesty, economy, and purity in the administration of the State government. It is a pledge that the Democratic party will not only denounce the present corrupt and unjust system of legislation, but that it will establish a system which will secure honesty, economy, and purity in the administration of the State government.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Central Committee of the Re-

THE CHOICE

Republican Platform.

Democratic Platform.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Central Committee of the Republican party of this State met at the Astor House, in this city, on Thursday, and adopted the following platform of principles, which they will present to the Republican State Convention, which assembles at Saratoga on the 4th of August:

1. Resolved, That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

2. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

3. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

4. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

5. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

6. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

7. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

8. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

9. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

10. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

11. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

12. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

13. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

14. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

15. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

16. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

17. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

18. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

19. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

20. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

21. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

22. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

23. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

24. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

25. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

26. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

27. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

28. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

29. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

30. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

31. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

32. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

33. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

34. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

35. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

36. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

37. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

38. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

39. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

40. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

41. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

42. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

43. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

44. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

45. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

46. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

47. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

48. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

49. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

50. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

51. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

52. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

53. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

54. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

55. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

56. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

57. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

58. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

59. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

60. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

61. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

62. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

63. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

64. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

65. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

66. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

67. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

68. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

69. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

70. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

71. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

72. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

73. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

74. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

75. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

76. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

77. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

78. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

79. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

80. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

81. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

82. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

83. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

84. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

85. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

86. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

87. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

88. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

89. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

90. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

91. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

92. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

93. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

94. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

95. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

96. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

97. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

98. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

99. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

100. That the Republican party of this State, in Convention assembled, hereby declares its unalterable devotion to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and to the Constitution of the United States, and to the Union of the States, and to the enforcement of the laws, and to the suppression of all violence, whether it manifests itself in the form of mobs or in the more formidable shape of insurrection.

EDUCATIONAL.

SECESSION IN NOVA SCOTIA.

CASUALTY.

The World on the Pioneers.

COMMERCIAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

LATEST MARKET NEWS

Foreign Markets.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Railroads.

Medical.

HELMBOLD'S

Genuine Preparation!

H

"Highly Concentrated"

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT

BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, and Dropsical Swellings.

E

This Medicine increases the power of digestion, and stimulates the vital functions, restoring the blood to a healthy condition, curing Dyspepsia, Debility, Low Spirits, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Horrors of Death, Wakefulness, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, and many other diseases that first undermine the constitution and then hurry the victim to the grave.

Men, Women and Children,

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU,

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Indiscretion, or the following alarming symptoms:

Indisposition to exertion, Loss of memory, Loss of power, Dimness of vision, Pain in the back, Universal lassitude of the muscular system, Hot hands, Dryness of the skin, Eruptions on the face, Pimples, Blotches, If allowed to go on, which this Medicine invariably removes, soon following

IMPOTENCE, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS,

In one of which the patient may receive.

We would say that they are not Occasionally followed by these dreadful diseases.

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will avow it.

THE SECRETIVE are PECULIAR AFFLICTED,

And the solitary Inebriate Consumptive, that expire witness to the truth of the assertion.

The combination is unfortunate with

Organic Weakness,

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

INVARIABLY DOES.

A Trial will Convince the Most Skeptical.

L

In all Affections peculiar to Females, whether from Childhood, or in the Decline of Change of Life.

THE EXTRACT BUCHU

Is unequalled by anything known.

No Family Should be Without It.

M

Take no more Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for Disagreeable and Dangerous Diseases.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

AND

IMPROVED ROSE WASH

Cure These Diseases,

In all their stages, at little expense, little exposure, little change in diet, no inconvenience, and little or no interruption to business. Explicit directions, with many thousand certificates of cures, including those of eminent Physicians, Clergymen, and others of the highest character for veracity, can be had of the Proprietor.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, whether existing in

MALE OR FEMALE.

From whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC.

And it certainly is here the desired effects in all cases for which it is recommended, such as Gravel, Dropsy, Stone and Sand in the Bladder, Inflammation, and all diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating.

O

PHYSICIANS' PLEASE NOTICE,

READ TO "SECRET" OF "SUCCESSFUL"

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

Is successful in Nervous, Chronic and Painful Diseases, in connection with proper remedies.

PREPARED BY

H. T. HELMBOLD,

Practical and Analytical Chemist, 594 Broadway, New York.

HELMBOLD'S

GENUINE PREPARATION.

L

ASSEVARAT.

D

Price, $1.25 per Bottle, or Six for $6.50.

Delivered to any address, securely packed, free of observation.

Sold by Druggists everywhere.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

DRUG AND CHEMICAL WAREHOUSE,

594 Broadway, New York.

HELMBOLD'S MEDICAL DEPOT,

104 South Tenth St., Philadelphia, Pa.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

And Unprincipled Dealers.

Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

Hotels.

Great Reduction in Hotel Prices.

Banking.

THE BANK OF CALIFORNIA

San Francisco.

Capital Five Millions of Dollars,

GOLD!

D. O. MILLS, President,
WM. C. RALSTON, Cashier.

LEES & WALLER, Agents,

NEW YORK.

Will transact a general Banking and Exchange business at SAN FRANCISCO and NEW YORK.

Collections in CALIFORNIA, NEVADA and all the PACIFIC COAST.

BUYING AND SELLING OF CALIFORNIA SECURITIES purchased and sold on Commission. Money Transferred by Telegraph or by Checks. California Coupons cashed or collected.

Will draw Bills of Exchange on the Oriental Bank Corporation, London, against deposits of Bullion.

JOHN MUNROE & CO.,

A specialties,

No. 7 Rue Scribe, Paris, and No. 2 Wall-st., New York.

Issue Circular Letters of Credit for Travellers in all parts of Europe, &c. Also, Commercial Credits.

Thread.

Trade Mark for the United States.

JOHN & HUGH AUCHINCLOSS

Sole Agents in New York,

For J. & P. COATS, of Paisley, Scotland.

Clarkson Manufacturers and proprietors of SPOOL COTTON for hire at Newton Mi-chine, Connecticut, also the best and cheapest

SIX-CORD,

Will find J. & P. COATS' Nos. 50, 60 and 70,

Expressly Adapted to their Wants.

Watches.

SUPERIOR IMITATION GOLD

THE ONEIDA WATCH FACTORY.

Ocean Steamers.

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY.

Sails.

$10 A DAY MADE BY ANY ONE

Mail.

WILSON & VANDENVOORT'S

Scales.

FAIRBANKS'

SCALES

Hotels.

Great Reduction in Hotel Prices.

Medical.

Can Consumption be Cured?

The Convention Pledged to Support Eight Hour Notions.

An Advance of Wages to be Demanded.

RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION.

The Proposed Chicago Horseshoe Line.

Meetings of the Directors of the Chicago, Blue Island & Indiana Railroad.

Election of Officers—Description of the Route.

WASHINGTON.

Proceedings in Congress Yesterday.

Final Passage of the Rock Island Bridge Bill.

Text of the Bill to Reduce the Army to a Peace Footing.

VAGARIES OF THE INSANE.

Incidents in the South Boston Hospital.

SUNSTROKE.

Practical Hints for an Emergency.

Amusements.

To Rent—Rooms.

To Rent—Stores, Offices, &c

Boarding and Lodging.

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

Wanted—Female Help.

Employment Agents.

Agents Wanted.

Business Chances.

Personal.

Lost, Found, &c.

Horses, Carriages, &c.

Printing Materials.

For Sale.

Machinery.

Pianos.

Real Estate—Country.

Strayed and Stolen.

Position of the Cabinet on the Presidential Issue.

The Bill for Counting the Electoral Vote.

Commissions on the Sale of Bonds, &c., to be Stopped.

Probable Fate of the Army Bill.

The Secretary of the Treasury Gives Practical Effect to the Eight-Hour Law.

Meaning of the Chase Movement.

Hancock Disappointed and Mad.

Seymour's Fraud and Treachery.

CINCINNATI

PACIFIC.

INDIANAPOLIS